THIS IS YOUR MAP OF THE TRAILS IN POKAGON STATE PARK

ANGOLA, INDIANA 46703

POKAGON STATE PARK

Established 1925, Area 1,173 Acres
U. S. 27, Near Angola

On the shores of Lake James and Snow Lake, amid the rolling hills of Indiana's lake county, Pokagon State Park offers unexcelled opportunities for healthful, outdoor recreation at all seasons of the year.

In a region where the Potawatomi tribes ruled for many years, the Park takes its name "Pokagon" from one of the famous chiefs. By treaty, Pokagon transferred to the government approximately a million acres of land, including the present site of Chicago, at a price of three cents an acre. Arrow heads and other Indian relics are occasionally found in the Park and surrounding areas.

The lakes form an attractive background for Pokagon Park, offering a combination of excellent fishing, boating and bathing throughout the summer, and forming a setting for the winter sports which are a feature of this Park. The lakes are well stocked with game fish. A bathing beach with piers, diving boards and floats is supervised by experienced lifeguards.

Pokagon is the only Indiana State Park with attractive winter sports. Skating and 1,300-foot toboggan slide are available.

THE INTELLIGENT USE OF LEISURE TIME

This trail map is given to you with the compliments of the State of Indiana through its Department of Natural Resources in the hope that it will direct your attention to the primary purpose for which the State Park system has been established.

These recreational areas are parts of "original America," preserving for posterity typical primitive landscapes of scenic grandeur and rugged beauty.

Along the quiet trails through these reservations, it is to be expected that the average citizen will find release from the tension of his overcrowded daily existence; that the contact with nature will refocus with a clearer lens his perspective on life's values and that he may here take counsel with himself to the end that his strength and confidence are renewed.
